Tip Using hook and loop fasteners makes it easy to detach and rearrange the candy and balloon pieces.

1 Make the bib.

Attach a high-tack adhesive fabric support sheet to a cutting mat, then attach cloth to the support sheet.

2 On the machine, select built-in pattern AR-I038, then enlarge it to make the circumference of the neck about 8".

Built-in Pattern: AR-I038_B x 2

3 Sew bias tape to the edges of the piece from step 2.

4 Make the decorative pieces for the bib.

First, use an iron to attach an iron-on fabric appliqué contact sheet to the pieces of felt. Next, select the built-in patterns for the candy and the balloon, then cut the parts.

Built-in Patterns: AR-B008_B x 2
AR-G007_A x 2
AR-G007_B x 2
AR-G007_C

5 Detach the felt pieces from the cutting mat.

Assemble the part A balloon parts with the adhesive sides facing, arrange the string between the assembled parts, then cover with a piece of cloth and bond the parts together by ironing. Sew the small-diameter rope arranged in a spiral to one of the part B candy pieces, then attach the other candy piece to it, with the string forming the stick sandwiched between the two pieces.

6 Put the finishing touches on the bib.

Attach a hook and loop fastener at the back of the neck. Attach hook and loop fasteners on the bib and decorative pieces.
